

College of the Ozarks is seeking a highly motivated, experienced, and service-oriented professional to serve as Assistant Director of Public Safety. This position serves as a key member of the Public Safety leadership team and assists the Director of Public Safety with the administration, management, training, and daily operations of the department. A primary responsibility will be supporting the College's preparedness for critical incidents, including active shooter incidents, severe weather, medical emergencies, threats to campus, and other situations requiring an organized institutional response.

The Assistant Director will have a significant role in strengthening the department's training program and ensuring officers and staff are prepared to respond effectively to the evolving safety and security needs of the College. The position will coordinate and facilitate department training, develop practical exercises, and assist in the planning and execution of campus-wide emergency response exercises.

The successful candidate must have POST certification with current commissioned peace officer status, significant professional experience in law enforcement, public safety, emergency management, campus safety, or a related field.

College of the Ozarks is a small liberal arts, work-study college with a commitment to evangelical Christian faith and service located in southwest Missouri near Branson (www.cofo.edu). The candidate must demonstrate strong qualities that will represent the five-fold mission of the College through Academic, Vocational, Christian, Cultural, and Patriotic goals. This is a full time (year-round) position and includes benefits such as paid medical insurance, retirement (403b), and vacation/sick paid time off. This position requires a background check, psychological evaluation, and Fit for Duty exam. Please submit resume and application by Friday, September 11, 2026 to Vicki Wrosch in the Business Office or mail to Vicki Wrosch, College of the Ozarks, P.O.
